

Feminist Epistemology and Philosophical Traditions
SWIP/CRMEP
18–19 November 2011
London, Kingston University

Friday 18th November

- 1.00–2.00 (JG3003) Registration
- 2.00–2.15 (JG0002) Introduction Stella Sandford
- 2.15–2.30 (JG0002) Remembering Margaret Whitford, 1947–2011
Morwenna Griffiths (Edinburgh University)
- 2.30–3.45 (JG0002)
Plenary session I
- Alessandra Tanesini (University of Cardiff)
'From Margin to Centre: Feminist Epistemology as Socially Responsible Epistemology'
- Respondent:
Chair Kathleen Lennon (University of Hull)
Stella Sandford
- 3.45–4.15 (JG3003) Break/Coffee
- 4.15–5.30 (JG0002)
Plenary session II
- Miranda Fricker (Birkbeck College, University of London)
'Feminist Epistemology as Social Epistemology'
- Respondent
Chair Stella Gonzalez Arnal (University of Hull)
Jennifer Saul (University of Sheffield)
- 5.30–7.00 (JG3003) Reception
- 7.30 Conference dinner

Saturday 19th November

- 9.30–10.00 (JG3003) Registration/Coffee
- 10.00–11.15 (JG0002)
Plenary session III
- Kirsten Campbell (Goldsmiths, University of London)
'Feminist Epistemology and Psychoanalytic Theory'
- Respondent
Chair Stella Sandford (Kingston University)
Jules Holroyd (Cardiff University)

11.15–11.30 (JG3003) Break/Coffee

11.30–1.00

Parallel sessions I

Session A (JG3004)

Annaleigh Curtis, University of Colorado at Boulder, USA

‘Just Interpretation: Feminist Standpoint Theory and Experimental Philosophy’

Sorana Vieru, University of Bristol, UK

‘Epistemic Privilege and the Philosophy of Science: Against Feminist Standpoint Theory in the Natural Sciences’

Session B (JG3006)

Aaron Creller, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

‘Developing Multiple Epistemologies: Making Space for a Capacious Approach to Knowledge’

Sarah Mattice, University of North Florida, USA

‘Intersections and Interventions: Chinese and Feminist Epistemologies’

Session C (JG3009)

Barrett Emerick, St. Mary's College of Maryland, USA

‘A Defense of Doxastic and Affective Voluntarism’

Iris van der Tuin, Utrecht University, Netherlands

‘Diffraction as a Methodology for Feminist Epistemology’

1.00–2.00 (JG3003) Lunch
(JG3004) SWIP AGM

2.00–3.30

Parallel sessions II

Session D (JG3004)

Tracy Howell, University of Waikato, Aotearoa/New Zealand

‘The Virtues of Feminist Standpoint Epistemology’

Dieuwertje Dyi Huijg, University of Manchester

‘Epistemic Confusion at the Feminist Activist Locus of Intersectional Dis/advantage: Some Questions for Standpoint Theory’

Session E (JG3006)

Roxanna Lynch, Swansea University, Wales

‘Assessing the Epistemological Assumptions behind the Ethics of Care’

Mariana Szapuová, Comenius University, Bratislava, Slovakia

'Feminist Epistemology and the Social Turn: Perspectives on the Knowing Subject'

3.30–3.45 (JG3003) Break/Coffee

3.45–5.15 (JG0002)

Plenary session IV

Gillian Howie (University of Liverpool)

'Is There a "Continental "Feminist Epistemology?"'

Respondent:
Chair

Alison Stone (University of Lancaster)

Jules Holroyd (Cardiff University)

5.15–5.30 (JG0002) Summing up